Polish President begins state visit to Vietnam

2017-11-28 03:32:34

Poland's President Andrzej Duda began a four-day State visit to Vietnam on Monday at the invitation of President Tran Dai Quang to step up a traditional friendship and multifaceted cooperation between the 2 countries.

It seeks to boost cooperation across fields of both sides' interests and benefits, especially trade, investment, development cooperation, and defence. The two sides will exchange information and measures to coordinate and support each other at regional and international forums.
